

Divine Love Newsletter

Volume 4, No. 2

March 2018

FROM THE EDITORS

Welcome to the March 2018 edition of the Divine Love Newsletter. What a blessed time we live in. Not only is the Father's Love available to human beings, but we have technology that allows us to come together and embrace each other's efforts in spreading the Love and Truth. We each play a role in God's Plan of Salvation – bringing our Father's children back to Him in Love. Each of us has unique gifts and talents that God has blessed us with to work together, alongside the Celestial angels, in order to bring more light and love to this planet and the spiritual realms. We are spiritual beings of love and light and don't belong to this world. Upon embarking on the Divine Love path, we set in motion forces that attract high spirits who work with us so that we can bring glory to God. It matters not what we do, but how we do it. Someone once asked, "How can I best serve God?" We can serve God by following the 11th commandment and loving our fellow brothers and sisters on earth and in spirit with the Divine Love. We often get caught up in the busyness of our lives and rush around without taking the time to look someone in the eye and quietly send them love, saying in essence, "I see you, I love you, let us rejoice in God's Love".

This newsletter is dedicated to all of you – you who are spreading Love and the news about the rebestowal of God's Divine Love. We welcome your comments, as well as inspiring stories, project updates, retreat reports, articles, personal Divine Love reflections or experiences – anything that you think would be of interest to other Community members.

Past issues of the newsletter can be downloaded from the Divine Love Community portal (username: members, password: DivineLove) or from the new Divine Love Sanctuary Foundation website.

UPCOMING WEBINAR: AWAKENING THE SOUL – MARCH-APRIL 2018 (GREGORY BOSTER)

Throughout my life I have been hungry for truth and inspired to find ways to heal and progress my soul, as well as to share these gifts with others. The foundation of all that I have found is my recognition that God’s greatest gift is the bestowal of Divine Love essence, and that this is freely given and waiting for all to receive. Gratefully, Jesus and the Celestials have clearly shown us the way to receive this Love essence in the messages channeled through James Padgett. The messages say that Jesus came for one purpose, described as the twofold mission:

*“Open your arms if you want the Beloved’s embrace.” (Rumi)
(Image from Public Domain supplied by Greg Boster)*

1. To share and declare that the Love of God is available to all and
2. To show and tell how to open the heart and soul to receive its inflowing.

Over many years of research, prayer and meditation, I have discovered ways to nurture the heart and help the soul’s progression. One thing that has guided my research is the prophecy by Jesus that a new religion would emerge which would encompass the core points of the major religions with the addition of the divine truths and the path of soul progression.

One way I have found that encompasses this concept and the twofold mission of Jesus is Sheng Zhen Gong, which means “the cultivation of Divine Love”. It was channeled through an unsuspecting Chinese coach/actor, named Li Junfeng. He was inspired by Jesus and the founders of many religions to bring their message to the world, and to cultivate this Love while cultivating the flow of qi in the body. Teacher Li calls what we refer to as Divine Love Sheng Zhen. Sheng Zhen Gong is the name of the system he developed for cultivating Divine Love for the soul as it enhances physical wellbeing.

In the webinar, entitled Awakening the Soul and Energy Body, we will together take a journey into the state that is conducive for healing both body and soul. Through an interactive meditative practice, we will open the body to universal healing energies and partake of the divine gift.

The webinar will include three aspects:

- Awakening the Soul – simple and fun, body prayer and poetry for opening and unraveling the heart.
- Invocation of Divine Love – prayer and contemplations for the inflowing of Divine Love essence.
- Mass Celestial Healing – calling on the Celestial healing forces, powers, energies and angels.

Webinar time and duration: Six Tuesdays, from March 13 to April 17, 7:00 to 8:00 pm Eastern Standard Time (USA)

Suggested donation: $30 in advance, or $8 per week, payable by PayPal. (Proceeds will help support the spreading of this mission and message.)

Facilitator: Gregory Boster, teacher, healer and minister; Certified in Angel Therapy, Mediumship, Yoga, Massage Therapy, Qigong, and Sheng Zhen Gong. Over 40 years of experience in holistic healing, energy work, and soul progression.

Method of participation: The webinar will be conducted online via Zoom. No special equipment is needed, just a computer, pad or smart phone with audio/video, loose, comfortable clothing, and a chair (with no arms).

FIRST DIVINE-LOVE RETREAT EXPERIENCES

On their recent travels, Al and Jeanne Fike met with several Divine Love followers on the US East Coast. For some of the participants, it was their first Divine Love retreat. We have two reports.

Soul Connections (Catherine Kent)

Six souls gathered at the Hollis Woods Community Church in Queens, NY, from Friday to Monday, February 16-19, to share the blessings of Circles of Light (prayers for God's Divine Love). Al and Jeanne Fike and Jeanne's sister, Judy Dunbar traveled the farthest, coming from Gibsons, British Columbia. Catherine Kent came from the Washington D.C. Metro area, Kevin O'Neill joined the group from his home in New Jersey, and all met up with the host, Hal Eisenberg, who resides in Queens. It was a reunion of dear friends for all but Catherine, who was delighted to meet everyone in person for the first time.

The church, built in 1942, was originally established as a place where local women could meet to pray for their husbands and sons who fought in World War II. Every one of those men returned home safely, free from physical injury. Though the church building is humble in stature, beautiful stained-glass windows, handcrafted with love in Germany, line the sanctuary and crown the altar. God's Divine Love is evidenced in the scenes of each window, blessedly free from biblical error, as we understand the Truth received through James Padgett.

God's hand was upon the group throughout the long weekend. On Friday, Caren, a young mother of two small children saw Al, Jeanne, Judy and Hal out in front of the church and stopped her car, exclaiming, "I come by this church all the time and no one is ever here! I've wanted to get in touch with you!" She had been drawn to the church for many years, living only a few blocks away. Her energy and local connections "...resonated wonderfully well," said Jeanne, who immediately invited Caren to join in a Circle of Light prayer. During that prayer session, messages were received from Matthew, Jesus, Goldie, and Augustine.

After the prayer, Caren went on her way and Hal graciously drove the rest of the group to meet Catherine at the Long Island Railroad Bayside station, in downtown Queens. While Hal parked the car, hugs and greetings were shared all around with Catherine. A one-minute walk to a nearby restaurant had everyone seated and ready for lunch by the time Hal came in. After the meal, Hal drove everyone back to the Adria hotel, and the group was made complete with the arrival of Kevin O'Neill, who had just checked in.

On Saturday, the official Circle of Light, open to the public took place at the church. A woman named Alice, who saw the advertisement on Meet Up, was surprised to find herself the center of attention as the only outside guest. The group shared stories and experiences of Divine Love, and the Circle of Light was blessed through prayer and a message received from Thomas Aquinas. God's charity shone again, as Alice, though raised Jewish, felt somewhat connected with Thomas Aquinas, because she grew up across the street from a church that bears his name.

God's Grace continued to be evident that day and during the entire weekend, through several Circles of Light prayer sessions and healing sessions. Even the weather cooperated, being largely mild, with a little winter magic thrown in for fun. On Saturday night, a "flurrious" snowfall arrived quickly, melted just as fast, and so was pure delight while it lasted.

On Sunday afternoon, the group descended on Hal's mother's home, also in Queens. Joined by Hal's mother and sister, they prayed and enjoyed delicious baked treats, thoughtfully served with tea around the Eisenberg family's kitchen table.

As Sunday drew to a close, the group shared farewell hugs with Hal and Kevin and returned to their lodgings at the Adria Hotel, to rest and pack. Catherine left early Monday morning for her home. Al, Jeanne, and Judy departed from Queens shortly thereafter to continue their journey, headed next to Monroeville, PA for a midweek Circle of Light before returning to Queens the following weekend for another retreat at Hollis Woods Community Church on Saturday and one in Manhattan on Sunday.

Though attendance at this weekend's event was small, prayers were mighty, and all present had faith that God's Divine Love poured out a wide Circle of Light over Queens. (More retreat photos can be viewed on Facebook).

After leaving Queens, NY, Al and Jeanne Fike visited Monroeville, PA, on February 20 and 21. Brooke Folk reports on his first Divine-Love retreat experience:

Laughter and Tears (Brooke Folk)

Divine Love pre-introduces you to those of like mind. Bill and Wendy Frase opened their home for two days of welcome to all who would enter. Enter I did, already feeling that my first-time in-person introductions would quickly become loved family members. That they did. In both the physical and spiritual introductions, we all felt unison within our small group.

The two doves that sat on the porch roof at times were privy that something special was evolving within the home. Inside were Al and Jeanne, Bill, Wendy, Penny Morse, Judy Dunbar, and via Zoom, Elizabeth Morana, of the physical variety. Jesus, Keea Atta Kem, Augustine, Andrew, Stephen and Isaiah were very welcome guests of the Celestial spirit variety. They were the bringers of divine messages through Al. In addition, untold numbers of spirits surrounded us all. It was a blessed gathering in the Pittsburg, PA area.

The late February temperatures in the mid seventies were record setters. Al was the one to spot our first robin, which announces the upcoming spring season. It was during one of our walks and just an hour after mentioning that we locals still hadn't sighted our first robin of the year.

Laughter and tears flowed together and flavored the occasion. From delicious salads, wedding soup, and pizza delights to the nourishing soul food from Celestial message platters, we were filled to the brim with love. Our souls were each given an additional measure of Divine Love.

Jeanne snapped a photo of her sister Judy and Bill, along with Elizabeth Morana who joined us on Zoom. A picture is worth a thousand words, but it was our fellowship and prayers that became the memories we will cherish into eternity.

DIVINE LOVE COMMERCIAL! (HOLLY BIANCO)

There's a commercial about God's Love I wanted to share with you in case you didn't see it. It's a cartoon commercial created by Norm Miller, the CEO of Interstate Batteries. I first saw it on TV about five years ago and then it stopped. Now it's back and playing more frequently. I have been seeing it on the Fox News channel every night. The commercial shows people who are frustrated and angry for various reasons, but then God's Love starts flowing into their hearts, making them feel alive and happy, and able to love others and make them feel happy.

Here is a quote from Norm Miller as to why he produced this commercial: "It just came in my heart and my mind that we need more of God's love right now... the main purpose of the commercial is to inform people and remind people that God's love is available for us and he wants to help us live a life where we love one another."

WORLDWIDE DIVINE LOVE RADIO TAKES TO AIRWAVES VIA INTERNET! (BROOKE FOLK)

“Hello and welcome to WDLR Radio. WDLR (The Internet’s Hallmark Worldwide Divine Love Radio Station). The station where the sole purpose is to awaken souls to the truth of God’s Divine Love message. My name is Brooke Folk and I’ll be your host on today’s episode.”

Those were my opening words to the first ever, one-of-a-kind, Internet radio program, which debuted February 7th, 2018 at <http://www.talkshoe.com/tc/145785>. Stepping back in time to the late 1950s, I was in love with the thought of unseen radio waves coming into my little rocket ship radio. It had alligator clips that I attached to a little outlet plug screw that held the faceplate to the outlet. In the nose cone was a little rod that you would slide up and down to hone in a station. No batteries. How intriguing.

I could never command the rules and regulations to becoming a Ham Radio operator. Even if I had passed the exam, I would never have been able to afford the purchase cost of the equipment. After high school graduation, I found the nerve to call a local radio station and was given a job. That was in 1968 and I just turned nineteen. I was in my broadcast heaven. In 1971, I applied for my CB Radio license. A few years before that, anyone could buy and talk on CB without a license. Various forms of traditional radio over a span of years, and then the Internet and another span, and now voila, Internet radio!

Through a podcast format called TalkShoe, I began broadcasting to a potentially worldwide audience. Wow, how intriguing! It was only natural that my writing and my audio were to become a means of spreading our God’s Divine Love messages. Upon my introduction to Divine Love in the last few days of 2016, my short story writing dramatically changed, and began to include casual introductions to the Divine Love principles. The thought of introducing Divine Love topics in a radio format was there, but my infancy in the Padgett Messages abated my enthusiasm, or perhaps spirit guides were nudging me to hold off a bit longer. I did record a number of episodes in February/March of 2017, but something was missing. Then about December, a different mindset began to brew and a different format and name for the episodes all came together.

The Divine Love community will create future episodes. Various personalities will tell their stories to an audience that will feel through sincere voices, the familiarity with what they, the listeners are going through in seeking understanding. Parables of today – that’s more or less what our stories are. Posting about the launch on the Divine Love Sanctuary Foundation forum brought encouraging feedback. It included comments such as: “Al and I are listening to you now as I write this!! I LOVE your voice! So warm, open and welcoming! You have the voice of authority and everything you’ve said so far is engaging!! How exciting!” – “I really enjoyed your broadcast! The story you shared reminds me so much of my own experience of being led to the Padgett messages. You inspire me!”

Emails were also complimentary of the concept and future potential. To listen to archived programs, visit the above link and click Listen on any episode. To become a future guest co-host, email me regarding your interest. It’s easy! You and I will agree on a time and day to meet on the program by phoning in. Simple call instructions will be sent to you. Then we will start the program and share your Divine Love Story and topic in an interview fashion. I look forward to hearing from you, getting to know you, and sharing your unique, spirit-guided story with the world.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE AND MANIFESTING OUR GREATEST SELF (EVA PECK)

The thoughts for this reflection came from several sources that converged for me and are all relevant to our Divine Love journey.

Many of you are probably familiar with the story of a little girl walking along the beach, throwing back into the surf starfish that had become stranded at low tide. A man comes along and tells her that she will never be able to rescue most of the starfish on the beach, so why bother, to which she replies, “my efforts made a difference for this one” – the one she just threw in.

Redster at freemages.com

The powerful lesson of the story is that we can't change the whole world or rescue everyone out of their dilemmas and predicaments. We can, however, as we have opportunities, help people one at a time and thus make a difference in the lives of those in our sphere of influence. There is also a ripple effect that our actions have, and those positively touched by our words or actions may touch the lives of many others. So the difference we make in individual lives, one at a time, can have an almost exponential effect. Not to mention the fact, that perhaps unbeknown to us, we are also influencing numerous spirits that are attracted to our light being curious or seeking answers. So let's never underestimate what our seemingly insignificant acts of kindness or words of truth and wisdom can accomplish.

A related thought to the above is the well-known quote by Mahatma Gandhi, echoed by others since his time, which states: “Be the change that you wish to see in the world.” Or, expressed in other words in the song, “Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me”. We are responsible for our life and behavior, and can only change ourselves. As we change, we may be able to positively influence others. We can't change others or control their behavior against their will – we can only choose how we ourselves behave and how we react or respond to others – in kind or kindly.

The third related train of thought came from the title of a book by Nick Ortner that I have recently finished which is The Tapping Solution for Manifesting Your Greatest Self. It deals with using the energy modality EFT or Tapping to release erroneous beliefs, unhelpful emotions, and practices that no longer serve us to progressively manifest our greatest we can be. The principles are all sound and helpful. But then the thought came to me, our greatest self really is becoming divine, immortal and glorified angels in God's Celestial Kingdom! And our potential for progress toward our greatest self is unlimited! In addition, we know the way to fulfilling this potential – namely consistently praying for God's Divine Love and choosing the way of love and kindness in all our actions. In other words, fulfilling Jesus' Eleventh commandment to love others as he loved – with the Divine Love.

A final thought that ties in with this is the fact that the more we grow in the Divine Love while on earth, the faster will be our progress in the spirit world. And when we pass over, we may be able to transcend the law of compensation, as by the time we reach the third spirit sphere, be become redeemed spirits. This implies a certain sense of urgency as we never know how much time we have left on earth. Our life can end tomorrow or in several decades, so it behooves us to always be in a state of readiness. Urgency, however, can't be to the point of wearing ourselves out and sacrificing our health – that would be counter-productive to our own progress as well as to serving others. We need to be diligent and consistent in our spiritual practices and service, but our efforts also need to be balanced. A bit like the turtle in the famous fable about the hare and the turtle – doing all we can and steadily plodding along, while also looking after our health and well-being, setting boundaries, and being patient with ourselves and others.

This way, knowing that we are God's greatly beloved children, that he deeply desires and has given us the means of becoming at one with Him in divine substance, that His Love gives us peace that transcends understanding, we can keep coming to our Father's Fountainhead of Love, pray for fresh supply of His Love to transform our soul, and choose to follow the way of Love in our words and actions as much as we can, without feeling unduly bad if we fall. If we do this, steadily and progressively like the turtle, we can't help but manifest, at any given time, our greatest self. And as we do it, we will also be making a difference in the world.

In conclusion, here is a quote from Anne Frank: “How wonderful it is that nobody need wait a single moment before starting to improve the world.”

POETRY CORNER

In the silence of the night,
 when my soul is growing wings,
 when all physical limitations fall apart,
 being resolved,
 when in the depths of sleep my soul and spirit are led into other realms, other spheres, then I am real and true.

No facade can veil what I am,
 what my soul truly is,
 and that it's kept to live what it really is,
 what it really feels beyond the facade,
 beyond all self-deception.

Be born of the Father's Love,
 the All-One,
 free to live, to experience
 what it really is.
 By the gift of free will, receiving the possibility of seeking for the Father's Love and Truth, to experience and to live it.

That my soul can grow in love towards my heavenly Father, that the Father's Love can flow into my soul and transform it, so that it achieves true freedom.
 In these other spheres at night,
 when celestial souls are teaching me what the Father grants me in his infinite love, what he in his loving kindness indicates to me, to us, by the law of attraction.

IN THE SILENCE OF THE NIGHT

Sabine Wink-Tudor

All that is hidden in the shadows of our soul, which prevents us to heal and to come home,
 to see where healing is still required inside, where we fight and quarrel about feeling not whole, not complete, in the love for ourselves and for our heavenly Father.

So in the silence of the night, when the true core of my soul shines beyond all self-deceit and self-denial, when its pristine light burns the veil of self-deception to ashes and transforms the ashes into stardust, out of which arises this Truth so crystal clear, pristine, complete and whole,
 about being born out of unconditional love, made of the perfect Love of the All-One,
 my only and strongest longing which burns like an eternal flame in my soul, can be just to return home into the beloved arms of my Heavenly Father.

CENTER OF GRAVITY

Gravity, like air, cannot be appreciated until it is absent. Drifting, when did I fall outside of myself into another, now gone?
 When is the force of groundedness unmoored by a reality that need not be mine?

We arrive as pure consciousness - a self-contained universe of one. The first time we need, we lean away from the anchor of self-awareness to receive, to give.

Back to the center, my feet firmly rooted, my soul leads me to live without tethers, letting go
 I accept the promise that we belong to ourselves and to each other.

PADGETT MESSAGE

TGRABJ, VOL. II, P. 33

The power of Love to redeem men from sin and error.

I am here, Jesus.

I want to write tonight on the power of Divine Love to redeem men from sin and error.

My Father's Love is, as I have written, the only thing in all this universe that can save men from their evil natures (sic), and make them at one with Him. This Divine Love I have already explained, and when mankind will read my messages and try to understand the meaning of this Love, it will soon become more at peace with itself and with God.

This Divine Love is the one great power that moves the universe, and without it there would not be that wonderful harmony that exists in the Celestial Heavens of the spirit world; nor would so much happiness exist among the angels who inhabit these spheres.

This Divine Love is also the influence which makes men on earth think and do that which makes for peace and good will among men. It is not possessed by all men, in fact, by comparatively few, yet its influence is felt over nearly the whole earth. Even those who have never heard of my teachings, or of my Father, enjoy the benefit of its influence; in some kind of belief or faith in an overshadowing spirit of great power and watchfulness. I know that this is true, for I have visited all parts of the earth, and have looked into men's hearts and found in them some elements of belief, which evidenced that this Great Love was influencing these unenlightened people. So, notwithstanding the fact that my gospel is not preached to every creature, as I commanded when on earth, yet this Love of the Father is everywhere and all pervading.

Still, it is not received in all that fullness that enables those who feel its influence to realize that God is their Father, and they are his children, who may become members of his household in the Celestial Spheres.

No man can receive this Love unless he has faith in the Father's willingness to bestow it upon him, and truly and with earnestness prays for it.

Every man has in him the natural love which will give him great happiness in eternity as a mere spirit and an inhabitant of the spheres lower than the Celestial - even though he refuses to seek for the Divine Love that will make him a Divine angel of the Celestial Heavens.

Only this Divine Love can change the natural man into a man having the Divine nature in Love that the Father has. I do not mean that man, even though he be filled with this Love to the highest degree, will ever become a god and equal to the Father in any of his powers or attributes. This cannot be, but this Love will make him like the Father in Love and happiness and harmony. This Love has no counterpart in all creation, and comes from the Father alone. It changes not, nor is ever bestowed on anyone who is unworthy, or refuses to seek for it in the only way provided by the Father.

My experience in these Celestial Heavens is that this Love has the power to change the most hardened sinner into a true child of God, if only through faith and prayer such sinner will seek for it. Let this Love take possession of a man or spirit, and its power to purify and change the heart of that man or spirit never fails.

Your brother and friend,

Jesus
