Volume 4, No. 6

November 2018

FROM THE EDITORS

Our dear friends, we welcome you to another issue of the Divine Love Newsletter – a newsletter dedicated to all of you who are praying for the Divine Love and spreading the Good News about the availability of God’s Love to humankind.

We are excited to announce that Thomas Blackston and Catherine Kent are now ministers of the FCNB and FCDT, respectively. They have dedicated themselves to our Heavenly Father by embracing the Truths and furthering God’s Plan of Salvation. We support them in their outreaches as they continue to align themselves with the Father’s Will.

The Divine Love retreat in Phoenix, Arizona was a great success. Of course, all gatherings whose purpose it is to pray for God’s Love are successes. This particular event, however, was especially harmonious and all participants received wonderful healings and blessings from our Heavenly Father. It was great to see everyone setting aside their own agendas to serve the group and facilitate the highest level of energy and flowing of Divine Love possible. Rev. Al Fike mentioned that he felt that we were in the center of a stadium and our prayers, in conjunction with those of the angels, opened up an incredibly bright portal of Love and Light which attracted thousands of spirits. This was another way that, as Patricia Doyle (the primary organizer of the event) mentioned, the retreat was a “glorious bridge-themed Divine Love retreat” – we “mortals” acted as a bridge for the angels to reach spirits who were open to learning more about God’s Love. So while we all enjoyed a remarkable feeling of love, peace, serenity, and joy, it wasn’t all just about us – it was also about working as a team with the angels to bring glory to our Heavenly Father and to facilitate His children’s returning into His Arms of Love.

A new retreat is planned for March 2019 in Western Pennsylvania. It sounds like a very intimate group that has the potential for incredible healings, experiences in the Love, and working closely with the angels.

Greg Boster is offering a remote Divine Love meditation on healing the heart and awakening the soul.

We give our sincere condolences to Allan Forrest whose wife, Vicky, has recently passed away. Allan shares with us a beautiful story of Vicky’s transition to the spirit world and the Divine Love experience that he had while she transitioned.

DIVINE LOVE RETREAT IN PHOENIX FULL OF LOVE, HARMONY AND HEALING (EVA PECK)

Between September 9-13, seventeen brothers and sisters in the Divine Love gathered in unity and harmony at WorldMark Phoenix to fellowship, worship in music, song and dance, learn from each other, get to know each other better, and above all, pray for God’s Love and personal healing. The group also enjoyed meals together, fun time in the pool, a trip to Desert Botanical Gardens and Hole in the Rock, with a small group also going on Desert Belle Cruise on the Saguaro Lake. Each participant who wished to do so received affirmation and prayers for healing during a morning or afternoon prayer session. In some cases, the results were powerful and obvious to all (see Joseph’s story below). Everyone was touched at soul/heart level in giving and receiving Love and left uplifted and edified, as well as wishing the retreat would continue. Thanks are due primarily to Patricia Doyle for spearheading and organizing this retreat, as well as those who assisted with set-up, food, and other ways. Quoting Jeanne Fike, “Thank you everyone for bringing your highest selves together in mutual prayer and respect for all our unique creations!”

A few specific comments from the retreat participants follow:

It was wonderful praying with everyone. I miss you all and your beautiful energy! I feel so blessed to have been a part of this retreat. Thank you all for all of your love and making this one of the best retreats that I have attended! You all have a special place in my heart. (Michael Nedbal)

This was a powerfully healing gathering! Being both a participant in and recipient of the healing was a huge blessing for me! I could see/sense the impact of the healing on every one of us, how it changed us and opened us in powerful ways to encounter one another with deeper love and appreciation. God is great! God's Love lives within each of us and is expressed through us!

Thank you, Patricia, for initiating this retreat, for your careful, thoughtful preparation and graceful facilitation! Thank you, Eva for arriving early and helping in every way possible! Thank you, Holly, Joan and Carolyn (and others) for all the ways in which you supported Patricia! Thank you each dear one for your contributions in prayer, song, words and deeds, and for being eager channels of God's healing Love! How wondrous to know the power of gathering together with pure soul longings and highest intentions. We can only grow brighter, stronger in our faith, as we continue our relationship with our Creator and one another.

To go from this upliftment in God's Love directly to the AREI Conference highlighted for me the blessing of knowing God through His Love. Hundreds of dear souls attended the Conference, most appearing to be locked into a natural pathway paradigm of reality. It was evident to me how freeing it could be for people to embrace a relationship with our Creator, to invite His transformative energy of Love into their souls, and how profoundly that would alter their understanding and experience of both life and death. I feel more motivated than ever to share with others, when the moment is right, this Truth of God's Love for all His Creation, which awaits only our desire to receive it. (Terry Adler)

What I especially loved about the retreat, as well as the spiritual healings, was the music. It's music that opens up my soul, so that I can "Glow with the Flow!" So thank you immensely, dearest Patricia, Jimbeau, Holly and Carolyn. Jimbeau's songs have been playing in my thoughts all week. Yay! (Joan Warden)

What a joy it was to be in such a special Circle of Light celebrating and worshipping our beloved Creator together and enjoying each other-- each beautiful soul! I know the angels and our loved ones in spirit prayed and sang with us! It was amazing to see the portal of light growing more powerfully each day and God's great love and healing pouring down upon us all and out into the world! (Darlene Gaunt)

What a gift the healing sessions were to me. I experienced a level of healing far beyond what I've sensed before. The best way for me to describe it would be, to show up and then step aside to allow the healing current to rush through my body in great waves of light. I truly believe each person in our group was held by OUR HEAVENLY FATHER during the flow of healing energy.

I also wanted to say to you, my dear brother Joseph that to witness your healing over the days we were together was a pure joy!!! Your youthful expressions of glee when we were rubbing each other's shoulders in the circle brought delight to us all.

I feel such a deep love and appreciation for all the beautiful souls that gathered and prayed with such earnestness. I find myself singing those uplifting songs of love and praise, holding tight to the joy that is relived and brings me close to all of you. I prayed to not return the same person as I was when I left home. God answered my prayer. May we all be released into OUR FATHER'S LOVING ARMS for continued healing. (Dorothy Clauson)

Our friend, Geoff Cutler, asked me if the Retreat was good. I answered: Geoff, the Divine Love Retreat was not only good for me personally, it was a life-saver! My daughter, Julia, drove me to the Retreat. I attended on faith, but I was a wreck. I was weak and feeble, skin and bones. When I first entered the room, expressions on faces who looked upon me were of astonishment and unbelief. It seemed that some hardly recognized me. This happened the evening of Sunday, our first gathering. Jimbeau assisted me when I had to leave early due to extreme fatigue.

The next morning, we had a prayer circle and I was called forth to sit in the center and receive prayer and laying on of hands. Healing first began of my physical body. Then, in subsequent days, healing of mind and heart began and continued. The only evidence I can give for this is that I was able to stay focused and awake the remainder of the week in the Divine Love gatherings, and then able to continue even while attending the Afterlife Symposium (not a Divine Love gathering). All but five from the Divine Love Retreat also attended this Symposium organized by AREI (Afterlife Research and Education Institute).

And the surprising thing is that healing continues after returning home. This is happening while I read Al Fike's new book Divine Love Mediumship which Al gifted me with. This is a heaven-sent book. I love and appreciate all my sisters and brothers that I met at our Divine Love Retreat in Phoenix. It was truly very difficult for me when I had to say goodbye to YOU. (Joseph Babinsky)

I had the impression before the retreat that this gathering would be special. Even as tired as we all were that first night, I knew this was going to be a great prayer circle experience. Sure, some of us came with hidden conflicts, but because of God's Love in our souls and love for each other, we came anyway and in spite of this desert place with temperatures over 100 degrees.

Yes, the desert places of our hearts needed to be filled and so they were. For this, I felt we achieved a victory in spirit and the angels were applauding us. I turned to God and told him "We did it; we passed the test and Your Love made it happen. This is a testament to Your Divine Love in us!" (Holly Bianco)

GLOW WITH THE FLOW: OUR BRIDGES OF LOVE (PATRICIA DOYLE)

Immediately after the glorious bridge-themed Divine Love Retreat, eleven of us Divine Love souls attended the 2018 Afterlife Symposium in Scottsdale, AZ, ready to share Jesus’ messages of Divine Love through James Padgett. More than 850 people were present at this year’s symposium, making it the largest symposium of its type in the world. Several of us had books in the bookstore, and four of us submitted ads to the symposium program – three of which appeared on the same page – an entire page, or 1/10th of the ad space in the program, devoted to Jesus’ message of Divine Love! Eva Peck’s ad was inadvertently left out of the program brochure, but besides getting a payment refund, as a compensation, it was placed at the bottom of the Symposium web page among the sponsors. Joan Warden had a stunning half-page ad, “Glow with the Flow!”, and made black t-shirts with the same message, in a heart in glittery-gold color. Holly, Joan and I wore the shirts on the first day of the symposium, and it attracted a lot of attention, and still does every time I wear it! What a great idea that was, and so much fun!

The authors in our Divine Love tribe were, for the most part, disappointed with the outcome of our book sales. I only sold three books this year, while last year I sold sixteen. Talking with Jerry Miner, the bookstore manager, I found out that oddly, the bookstore only did a third of last year’s sales, even though the symposium attendance was more than doubled. He said all the vendors, except one, had the same drop in sales. One vendor I made a purchase from said she might not return next year. I think a big factor was how compact the schedule was, with attendees often having to choose between three presentations happening at once. Many times I wanted to tri-locate, but I have not learned that skill yet!

Deeper connections were made with at least a dozen people I had met in previous years. One of those connections was Sandra Champlain, the international best-selling author of We Don’t Die – A Skeptic’s Discovery of Life After Death. Her radio program, We Don’t Die Radio, has over 10,000 daily listeners and she was celebrated this year as AREI’s Global Ambassador. Meeting her was for me one of the highlights of last year’s symposium when I sat near her at one of the presentations. Before the session started, she spontaneously and unconsciously channeled to me that my son’s surgery would go fine. I immediately knew this was a gift from God, as his well-being was very much on my soul and I needed the reassurance. My son’s first surgery had gone horribly, almost killing him. He suffered immensely for many days, barely able to breathe and choking 24/7. Directly after that symposium, I was coming home to his second surgery for the same issue, and could now face it with the confidence that comes only from faith, and pass this faith on to my son. His surgery went extremely well, of course!

Another highlight of this year’s symposium was the presentation by Sonia Rinaldi about the recent breakthroughs in her work. Sonia is a pioneering ITC (Instrumental Trans-Communication) researcher from Brazil who has been recording the voices of people in spirit speaking to their loved ones on this side. Her procedure is clearly defined and she has been working with a team of researchers, scientists and engineers in the spirit realm, including Edison, Einstein and Tesla. Edison is considered to have been the first person to think of ITC in 1920, but he was not able to realize his vision while a mortal. In the last two years, there has been a tremendous expansion of the Interdimensional Net which makes ITC possible. Tesla joined the South Transmission Station in Brazil with the North Transmission Station in the US. Australia is also part of the expansion. The quality of images and recordings has taken a quantum leap. Hundreds of remarkable trans-images have been received, including a smiling image of Tesla! Katarina Mirkovic was the first mom to receive messages from her son through ITC with Sonia. (Katarina was also the first person to ask for my autograph when I gave her one of my books last year, and this year when she saw me, said she LOVED my book!) An ET image appeared over her hair in one photo and another image had a transfiguration on top of Katarina's face. Rev. Sheri Migdol received a very clear picture of her son. The first parents to talk to their deceased son through ITC also produced his image, and when the mom excitedly recognized the image, he moved his head! You can see more than 128 pages, 135 audios, and 8 videos of Sonia's material here and here.

A hummingbird flew over my head as I briefly connected with Mark Anthony, The Psychic Lawyer, on the way to his stellar keynote presentation, "Rulers Royals Spirits and Psychics." In his talk, he mentioned an incident when Winston Churchill was staying in the Lincoln Bedroom at the White House during World War II. Naked after hopping out of a long bath, he walked into the main bedroom and saw Abraham Lincoln leaning on the fireplace! The two looked at each other and Churchill supposedly said, "Good evening, Mr. President. You seem to have me at a disadvantage." Lincoln's ghost smiled a little and faded away. After that, Churchill refused to stay in the Lincoln Bedroom!

Even though our bookstore sales were disappointing, consider this potential collective impact: We were filled with God's Love from our amazingly blessed, worship-filled retreat in the preceding five days. Personally, I deeply connected with and shared Divine Love and the Padgett messages with at least a dozen new people. Multiplied by eleven of us means we planted seeds in at least 130 people (and the spirits around them) . . . at least one-sixth of the entire audience! We probably affected the symposium more than we will ever know.

FROM PAIN TO PEACE – VICKY’S TRANSITION TO HEAVEN (ALLAN FOREST)

In January 2017, my beloved wife, Vicky, was rushed to hospital and admitted for four days because of an irregular heartbeat that at one point reached 200. On one of those days, Vicky had a near-death experience, which she described to me afterwards as feeling herself rising and watching the Coronary Care Unit room dissolve before her eyes. She said a voice told her that it was not her time, but not to fear for the time would come soon. Vicky was certain that God had spoken to her, and the peace she felt was extraordinarily tangible.

In 2016, Vicky and I had met Al and Jeanne Fike through mutual friends. I believe that God had brought us together as we quickly connected on a very spiritual level which led to an invitation to join them for a few of their morning prayers and their regular Monday evening Circle of Light prayer which they hosted for a group of Divine Love followers in our area. These prayer times together were what convinced us about Divine Love without ever having read anything about it. In these meetings, Al Fike, who is a medium, received several messages from Celestial Angels especially for Vicky, offering guidance, encouragement, exhortation not to fear, and assurance that all will be well.

By June 2018, Vicky’s heart continued to decline with increasing angina pain. Her quality of life became poor, as constant dependency on oxygen restricted her to our home. It was then that she made the decision to apply for MAID (Medical Assistance in Dying). In our province of British Columbia, Canada, this option became legal in June 2016. After a strict acceptance process, August 30, 2018 at 4 pm was given to end her life. Vicky was grateful that her pain would soon be gone.

On the appointed day, three of my friends along with Vicky’s sister and son came to support me. Vicky had been sleeping in a hospital bed that I moved away from the wall so we could all gather around. Even though the doctor arrived fifteen minutes late and the nurse struggled to start the IV for the lethal drugs that would stop Vicky’s heart, Vicky remained calm throughout.

Vicky peacefully transitioned shortly after the doctor administered the mortal dose. So lost was I in the process of losing my beloved, that I was initially unaware of the energy shift that had taken place. A heavenly presence had filled our home, spreading its wings, corralling us with peace. It was as tangible as Vicky’s body lying peacefully in the bed. I could easily say God had visited, but there were no words to describe what was happening other than that our house had been wrapped in a cocoon of Divine Love as profoundly real as the clothes covering my body. This was not a belief about what Divine Love is, nor a philosophical discussion. Rather, this was an actual experience of absolute Truth. God had told Vicky that He would walk her Home and He did.

While the heavenly presence and Vicky’s body remained, Vicky quickly lifted off and vanished, leaving behind a residue of joy that was as profound as the peace that filled the room. She was free and had no intention of wasting a single moment looking back. The overwhelming awe that was experienced has changed my life forever. We were all touched by God that day. Of course, I am sad that my beloved Vicky is physically gone. Yet she remains with me, filling my life with her divine presence. How can I conceivably feel alone? How can we possibly be afraid of death when such wonderful future awaits us?

FOUNDATION CHURCH OF THE NEW BIRTH IMAGE ARCHIVE (ELIZABETH MORANA)

The Trustees of the Foundation Church of the New Birth, Inc. (FCNB)—incorporated in Washington DC in 1958 and now located in Williamsville, NY—are delighted to announce Release One of an Image Archive. The Archive includes over 20,000 scanned pages of handwritten manuscripts and manuscript copies of JPEG files of virtually all the Padgett and Samuels messages known to exist, both previously published and never before published.

More than 20,000 file names have been standardized and the files merged with this FCNB-IA Release 1.0, which is made up of two collections—messages received by James Padgett, Esq. and those received by Dr. Daniel Samuels. The Image Archive is further broken down by year and month. The images of any particular message can be found by browsing for date and the spirit-author’s name. The JPEG images are un-retouched and appear just as they came off the scanner – ready to be read or enhanced with Photoshop or another image editing software.

We’re grateful to the holders of these precious documents who allowed them to be scanned and to all those who participated in the scanning, labeling, and organizing of these materials.

The FCNB-IA Release is available on a 64-GB flash drive. Donations are gratefully accepted to cover the cost of the flash drive and postage. Instead researchers of these revolutionary messages can work with these electronic images in their own homes. We also invite community members to request the Image Archive as an off-site storage to further protect the future of these precious images that document the second coming of Jesus. Divine Love casteth out all fear.

I am here, St. Andrew.

I came to tell you that where love is there can be no sin or unhappiness, and fear is not.

We, who live in the Celestial Spheres, know this to be a fact, and with all the force and authority that knowledge gives, we declare this truth unto you tonight: the love that casts out all fear is the Divine Love of the Father, and when a spirit obtains that, there exists no such thing as fear, and nothing that could create or permit fear to exist.

God wants the souls of men in love and not in fear, and the only way in which such end can be accomplished is for men to see and know Him as a God of Love only. No man can come to the Father except through this New Birth and faith in the Father's Love.

The performance of duty, good works and mere faith, while they will all help man in the development of his moral character and qualities, yet they will not give him an entrance into the Celestial Heavens which are the heavens where Jesus rules and is the Prince, unless the spirit shall obtain this Divine Love which makes it a part of the Father's very essence of Divinity.

Many spirits are happy by reason of their having led good, moral lives on earth and because of a high development of their natural love, and realize that God is their Father, and watches over them and gives them many blessings; but this happiness is not that which comes with the possession of the Divine Love, and besides, the place of habitation of these spirits is limited and does not permit these spirits to have free access to all the spheres where God's goodness and care are manifested.

The spirits who have obtained this Divine Love have no limitation to the spheres in which they may progress, and are not restricted in their places of habitation or in the spheres in which they may live. And besides, the presence and glory of the Father are so much greater in these Celestial Spheres than in those where the mere natural love obtains.

I must not write more tonight, for you are commencing to tire. So with all my love I will say, your brother in Christ, St. Andrew.

Jesus affirms that Mr. Padgett is now receiving the Divine Love of the Father in more abundance.

I am here, Jesus.

I merely want to say, that I am glad to see that you are in condition of soul which makes you more at one with the Father, and which must convince you that the Love of the Father is flowing into your soul in more abundant streams of power and quantity.

I know that you have not been in the best condition of mind as regards your beliefs and doubts, during the past few days, but you must not let such experience discourage you, for such conditions will arise as long as you are in the flesh; and you must not think that, because of the doubts, you are not receiving this love in your soul, for you are, and after a while it will become so very abundant that the doubts will rarely appear to disconcert you.

I will not write much tonight, as I think you are in need of meditation over what has been written you lately, before more truths shall be presented to you. So think of what has been written you and you will find yourself much benefitted.

With all my love, I am your brother and friend, Jesus
